Corsican Villages

Corsica is famed for its stunning scenery and charming villages. Departing from the pier you will travel along winding roads, as you sit back and enjoy the views of its picturesque villages and the scenery of this beautiful island. Overshadowed by the imposing Monte Grosso range and encircled by a belt of olive trees, you will first visit the village of Calenzana, with its pleasant tree-lined s...

Hiking the Bonifatu Forest

Corsica is an unspoiled island of majestic snow-capped mountains, deep gorges, cool pine forests, ancient hamlets perched on hillsides, and dazzling beaches—all in an area only one-fifth the size of Switzerland. From the pier it's a short 30-minute drive up to the forest, where you will be met by your certified hiking instructor and you will listen to a safety briefing. On a lei...
