

HUALIEN, TAIWAN

Pine Garden, Kang-Ten Temple & Keishuin Japanese Temple

In its 400 years of modern history, Taiwan has been occupied by the Dutch, Spaniards, Chinese and Japanese. Those influences echo through the city of Hualien and combine with rich aboriginal culture on this unforgettable half-day tour. You'll head to the Pine Garden, formerly the site of a Japanese military outpost for photos. Natural beauty and historic buildings dwell harmoniously...

VIEW DETAILS

Book now

Login to add to Favorites

Email Excursion

Approximately 5 Hours

Taroko Gorge

Taroko Gorge National Park is one of the world's most thrilling natural wonders and an experience that shouldn't be missed. This narrow, twisting, 12-mile-long canyon is filled with craggy rocks and cascading water. 70 million years of geologic uplift and water erosion have formed the world's deepest marble canyon. An unforgettable narrated drive, with you glue...

VIEW DETAILS

Book now

Login to add to Favorites

Email Excursion

Approximately 5½ Hours

Taroko Gorge National Park

This deep immersion into the heart and soul of Taiwan includes dramatic scenery in Taroko Gorge National Park, marble factory shopping and an aboriginal Taiwanese dance performance. Situated near the rocky east coast of Taiwan, Taroko Gorge National Park is an astounding 12-mile-long canyon—a breathtaking spectacle of craggy rocks and cascading water. With numerous photo stops and ...

VIEW DETAILS

Book now

Login to add to Favorites

Email Excursion

Approximately 8¼ Hours

