

ISAFJORDUR, ISLANDA

Arctic Foxes & Avalanches

Súðavík village, with its 200 or so inhabitants, dates back to the end of the 19th century, when Norwegian fisherman set up two whaling stations in Álfta fjord. Súðavík stretches along the coastline and is divided into two distinct parts. The Old Town was hit by an avalanche in 1995, destroying part of the village. The other part—...
