

PALAMOS, SPANIA

Best of Girona

A scenic one-hour drive west from Palamos brings you to the beautiful town of Girona, known as the Immortal City. Girona is rich in historic treasures and is one of the most interesting monumental cities in Spain. First you'll stop at the El Call area, one of the best-preserved Jewish Quarters in Europe—continuously inhabited for almost seven centuries. At the very hea...

Costa Brava Ancient Past

Visit Empuries—a Roman city dating from 550 BC, whose name originates from emporion—meaning marketplace or commercial center. This name correctly describes the purpose of the site, for the city was favorably situated at the delta (at that time) of the River Fluvia and at the crossing of several trade routes. Such a strategic place also offered protection to the trading...

Salvador Dali's Castle

Salvador Dalí is best known for the striking and bizarre images of his surrealist work. His Castle Museum is located in Pubol and was officially the residence of the artist's wife, Gala. The three-story structure was built in the 14th century, during a period of significant affluence experienced by the Pubol Barony. Dalí bought the castle in 1970 to fulf...
