

PHUKET, THAILANDA

---

Country Life & Elephant Ride

Wild elephants used to roam freely on Phuket Island, but as rubber plantations and tin mining changed the natural environment, the wild elephants slowly disappeared. This excursion starts with a drive past a rubber plantation en route to an elephant camp, where you learn about elephant conservation and the role of the mahout (elephant driver). Observe traditional training methods ...

Phuket Discovery

Depart by motor coach and head to Phuket Town to explore the city's graceful atmosphere. Glimpse exterior views of old Sino-Portuguese-style buildings, a local market and the Chinese Shrine. Next, you'll pass Two Heroine Monument—built to commemorate the two Thai women who saved Phuket from a Burmese invasion in the 18th century. Then, pass by the island's biggest mosque at Bang Ta...
