Leave from the quayside and head directly to the British-Spanish border between Gibraltar and Spain. Your driver/guide will provide a brief overview of Gibraltar's history along the way, and will point out the areas you will be visiting at the World War II tunnels. At Europa Point, site of the Trinity Lighthouse, you'll take in the stunning views this area affords—this is where the raging Atlantic Ocean mingles with the calm waters of the Mediterranean Sea. You can see the busy Straits of Gibraltar, the African coastline and the famous Spanish Costa del Sol. Continue to the Nature Reserve, home of the Northern Defenses Sector. You will learn about Gibraltar's fascinating and significant World War II history on the way, and hopefully catch a glimpse of the famous Barbary apes (Macaca sylvanus) roaming freely around the area. Once you have visited the fortress, you will be escorted to the café, where you can choose from a selection of drinks and light snacks (at your own expense). Enjoy the numerous photos exhibited within this facility, and take a stroll at your leisure.
