Tour Descriptions for Tangier, Morocco

MOORISH TOWN OF CHAOUEN

Tangier, Morocco Tour Code: TNG_01

Journey to the village of Chefchaouen, also known as Chaouen, the town of poetry and art lined with blue and white washed houses with balconies, tiled roofs and patios adorned with citrus trees. This Moorish town sheltered the Arab refugees from Andalusia after the fall of Granada and the decline of Arab rule in Spain. Explore the town's old medina on foot along with your guide, who will share stories of its history.

Visit the Kasbah, dating back to the early 18th century. See the craftsmen at work in their small traditional factories and enjoy the aromas of the Moorish and Andalusian civilizations. Inside the Kasbah, visit the museum containing antique weapons, musical instruments, and photographs of the old town. You'll have a privileged view of Chaouen, as you enjoy a drink from a hotel's terrace.

Stop at the main square, where the striking 15th century Grand Mosque stands. The mosque and its nearby buildings were built by Jewish refugees, who alongside Muslims escaped Spanish persecution. You'll have some free time here for shopping or exploring further on your own. Enjoy a typical, authentic lunch at a local restaurant.

CAP SPARTEL & TETOUAN – UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE

Tangier, Morocco Tour Code: TNG_02

Experience one of Morocco's most authentic and best preserved medinas, stop for photos at the lookout point of Cap Spartel and visit Hercules Caves, inhabited in prehistoric times. A scenic drive takes you to Cap Spartel, a promontory projecting into the waters where the Mediterranean and Atlantic meet. Stop here for a unique photo opportunity and visit Hercules Caves. The caves have been carved out by the perpetual action of the waves and partially by the hand of man. You'll learn some of the legends surrounding these caves.

Drive to Tetouan, where you'll stop to see the old Royal Palace, a reflection of Moorish architecture. The palace is closed to the public, but its ornate gate will give you an impression of what is beyond. Hassan II Square, in the heart of the town, is reminiscent of Andalusia with its fountains, flower boxes, wrought iron balconies and shop windows. Follow your guide through the Medina, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The authenticity of the Medina is illustrated by its original urban layout practically intact and its initial design with surrounding wall, gates, and fortified constructions. This traditional walled souk features many typical architectural traits related to its history and a multitude of artisans carrying out their trades.

During your walk, you'll visit the School of Traditional Arts and Crafts - the first of its kind in Morocco. It has produced some of the country's best painters and keeps traditional art forms alive in the modern world. The city stands out for the beauty of these traditional arts including embroidery, cuisine, mosaics, and carved and painted wooden objects. Disadvantaged children learn new skills here, giving them a chance of success for their future and your entrance fees go directly to support this initiative. Relax and enjoy a typical Moroccan lunch with traditional entertainment at a local restaurant in the heart of the city. After lunch, you'll have some free time for shopping or exploring further.

TANGIER & ASILAH

Tangier, Morocco Tour Code: TNG_03

Enjoy the highlights of Tangier and visit the beautiful resort town of Asilah on the Atlantic Coast. A short drive takes you to the entrance of the medina, where you'll enjoy a comprehensive walk through one of Tangier's most historic and architecturally interesting areas, the Kasbah and its museum, before moving on to the Grand Souk.

The Kasbah area is spread across the highest point of the medina, and your guide leads you on an uphill walk while pointing out some of the highlights. Once at the top, you'll find yourself in an area hardly changed since Roman times. The Kasbah was the traditional residence of the sultan and his harem, and is now one of the most fashionable residential areas of Tangier and a much quieter quarter than other areas of the city. Visit the Kasbah Museum, newly renovated, it focuses on the history of the area - enjoy the traditional courtyard, various displays and the large mosaic works of art on display. Winding your way back down the hill, your guide leads you into the colorful and bustling Grand Souk. It is the center of things and the link between the medina and the new city.

A scenic drive takes you to Cap Spartel a promontory projecting into the waters where the Mediterranean and Atlantic meet. You'll stop here for a unique photo opportunity and then continue the town of Asilah. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant before exploring this beautiful place. Asilah was first populated by the Phoenicians who used it as trading port, then by the Portuguese, and in 1692, the city was liberated and returned to Morocco. Today, it's one of the most popular seaside resorts on Morocco's Atlantic coast, especially during the summer. Drive back to Tangier and stop for shopping before returning to your ship.
