Tour Descriptions for Astoria, Oregon

HISTORIC ASTORIA & FORT CLATSOP

Astoria, Oregon Tour Code: AST_02

Discover historic Astoria! You'll make a brief photo stop at the Astoria Column which was built in 1926. This 125-foot tall concrete and steel structure features a cast-iron 164 step staircase that leads to an observation deck. If you decide to climb to the top, you'll see majestic views of Astoria, the Pacific Ocean and the snow-capped volcanoes of the Cascade Range.

Views from the base are just as panoramic, the column stands atop Coxcomb Hill, Astoria's highest point. Continue to the Lewis and Clark National Historical Park for a tour of Fort Clatsop. You'll also visit the Columbia River Maritime Museum located on Astoria's historic waterfront. The museum features nautical artifacts including the Lightship, which served as a floating lighthouse.

Enjoy a scenic drive through Astoria nestled between the Columbia River and Young's Bay. You'll see picturesque Victorian and Queen Anne style homes and churches, Uniontown - home of the men who worked at the Union Fish Cannery and the Doughboy monument, dedicated to the soldiers who gave their lives in World War I.

Note: At the maritime museum, the Lightship is not recommended for individuals with mobility challenges due to steep access ladders and elevated thresholds. Tour order and route may vary. Transportation used on this tour is a school bus.

FLAVEL HOUSE, TEA & SCONES

Astoria, Oregon Tour Code: AST_06

Venture back to the days of a bygone era with a visit to the stately Flavel House Museum. The house was built in 1885 for Captain George Flavel, Astoria's first millionaire and one of its most prominent citizens. One of the best-preserved examples of Queen Anne architecture in the Northwest, Flavel House is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

On the outside, this stunning mansion boasts a decorative exterior, three-story octagon tower, impressive balconies and verandas. Inside, the approximate 11,600 square foot mansion features elegant woodwork, stained glass windows, and in-laid hardwood floors. The three-story tower provided the Captain a panoramic view of

Astoria and the Columbia River.

After your tour, you're invited to sit and relax in the parlor for a cup of tea and scones. You'll have the opportunity to visit the restored Carriage House Gift Shop to purchase a souvenir, before returning to the pier.
