Tour Descriptions for Ushuaia, Argentina

USHUAIA IN-DEPTH

Ushuaia, Argentina Tour Code: USH_04

Combine the history and culture of Ushuaia, with a scenic drive to the mountains and countryside. Admire the rugged beauty of the landscape, experience local cuisine and learn about the city's first habitants.

Drive through one of Ushuaia's neighborhoods to get acquainted with the city and travel along the Pan American Highway toward the north of the island. Admire the dramatic scenery of river valleys, majestic mountains, forests and peat bogs as you make your way across the Fuegian Andes up to Garibaldi Pass. If the day is clear, you'll stop at a lookout point to take in the magnificent views of Escondido and Fagnano Lakes.

Enjoy a typical meal of Patagonian lamb, slowly roasted in the wood fire, in a cozy local restaurant. Visit the Maritime Museum, housed in what was the first prison in Tierra del Fuego. Learn about the prison and life of the inmates. Dangerous convicts and well-known political prisoners made this prison famous until 1947 when it was closed. View the maritime and native people's exhibits.

Note: Tour involves approximately 1/2 mile of walking over uneven, cobblestone, sand, steep terrain and 30 steps.

END OF THE WORLD PRISON & VINTAGE TRAIN

Ushuaia, Argentina Tour Code: USH_31

Immerse yourself in Ushuaia's history. In the early 19th century the Argentine government set up the Prison of Ushuaia where escape was practically impossible and for the first half of the 20th century, the city was centered around the prison. The prisoners became forced colonists and spent much of their time cutting wood in the forest and building the town. They also built a railway known as the prisoners train and the southernmost railway in the world. Dangerous convicts and well-known political prisoners made this prison famous until it closed in 1947.

Today you'll learn about the life of the prisoners during those days when they were the inhabitants of the End of the World. You'll begin with a visit to the old prison which today is home to a museum and take a train ride. During the narrated journey you'll discover a part of Tierra del Fuego's legendary history. At the railway's turnaround point, you'll board a motorcoach and continue a tour through the national park to Ensenada Bay, one of the area's scenic highlights before heading back to the pier.

Note: Tour involves approximately 1/2 mile of walking over uneven, cobblestone, sand, steep terrain and 20 steps.

END OF THE WORLD CANOE & TREK ADVENTURE

Ushuaia, Argentina Tour Code: USH_11

Walk along easy paths and float aboard an inflatable canoe for an introduction to the rivers, lagoons and wildlife of Ushuaia's National Park and Beagle Channel. Upon entering the park, you'll head to Lake Roca, where you'll receive a short, informative talk before your paddling begins. The route takes you along the lake to the crystal-clear waters of the Ovando River, one of the most picturesque areas of the park. Keep an eye out for petrels, albatrosses, steamer ducks and other types of birds.

Reaching Lapataia Bay, you'll start your approximately one-hour trek to appreciate the scenery, considered some of the most beautiful in South America. Winter bark, fire bush and a variety of beech trees make for interesting photography. A boxed lunch is included.

Note: Participants must be at least 12 years of age, in good health, must know how to swim, be able to paddle for 2.5 hours and trek for approximately 1.5 hours. Safety gear such as life vests, neoprene pants and rubber boots are provided. No restroom facilities are available during tour.

END OF THE WORLD OFF-ROAD ADVENTURE

Ushuaia, Argentina Tour Code: USH_01

Join this action packed 4x4 off-road adventure and discover the wild and untamed beauty of this southernmost region - a pristine habitat for unique fauna and flora. Enjoy a half-day four-wheeling experience and some relaxation at Ushuaia's heights during this scenic off-road expedition in the Fuegian wilderness.

Depart the pier aboard a Land Rover Defender vehicle and begin your approximate one-hour drive north along National Route 3 to the glacial valleys area. As you make your way to Carbajal Valley, feast your eyes with the view of Mount Olivia guarding a valley surrounded by snowy peaks, dense forest and marshes, where the off-road will take you for some 45 minutes up to an hour of thrilling tracks. After this you will enjoy an approximately 30-minute walk along the sub Antarctic forest and peat bogs that ends at a lookout over the Alvear mountain range with panoramic views of the White Dome and Bonete mountains.

A winter resort and sled dog kennel will open its doors for you to enjoy a light refreshment and an opportunity for your last photos before returning to the ship by minibus, stopping at the viewpoint of Playa Larga.

Note: Tour involves approximately 1/2 mile of walking over uneven, natural ground and steep terrain with 20 steps. Terrain can also be soft and muddy at times. Not recommended for those with back or neck problems and physical limitations due to the rough overland driving. Half of the group will leave the pier by minibus and return by 4 wheel drive.
