Airlie Beach Sights and History - IE06

Enjoy a leisurely and informative journey through the history of Australia's Airlie Beach. You'll learn how the region evolved from its sugar and cattle days to a booming resort town. Visit the Prosperpine Historical Museum for a good look at the old days and see "Digger", a vintage steam World War I locomotive. Stop at the famous Whitsunday Sailing Club for tea overlooking the water and an incredible collection of sailing vessels. Guests are free to depart the sailing club at their own discretion, returning to the ship via the shuttle service.

Explore the region by stepping back in time and experiencing the local sites. View amazing memorabilia displays at Proserpine Historical Museum located on the mainland and relive the days when sugar was the area's lifeblood. You'll see exhibits highlighting the Whitsunday region's historic sugar and cattle industries. Next, relax at the Whitsunday Sailing Club and enjoy a light morning tea while overlooking the water.

Highlights:

- Proserpine Historical Museum: Relive the days when sugar was the lifeblood of this region.
- Enjoy tea or coffee at the Whitsunday Sailing Club.
