Giardini Naxos, Classic Taormina 2015

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

Your tour will begin with a pleasant drive to Taormina. Built in the 3rd century BC, the city was later almost completely renovated by the Romans. It is perched on a terrace overlooking the sea. You will stop near the center of Taormina, Corso Umberto. At the start of this charming street is the Palazzo Crovaja, the greatest symbol of Taormina's long and varied history. You will see Piazza IX Aprile, with its characteristic black and white paving, Gothic St. Augustine's Church and 17th century Church of St. Joseph. The piazza leads to the oldest part of Taormina through the Porta Di Mezzo where the Torre dell'Orogio Clock Tower majestically stands. Compact and beautiful Piazza Duomo has its own bar and ornate Baroque fountain, and is home to Palazzo Ciampoli, Floresta House, Palazzo Municipale and the 13th century Plaza del Duomo Cathedral. The most remarkable monument in Taormina is the Ancient Theater, built mainly of brick, the second largest of its kind in Sicily, and still used today for opera, theatre and concerts. While you are wandering Taormina consider purchasing a mulberry gelato.

Please note: Buses are not permitted to enter the town of Taormina. Guests will get to the city center from the parking lot by lifts. There is an entrance fee required at the Ancient Theater. Wear comfortable walking shoes.
