Lanzarote, Jameos del Agua & Mirador del Rio

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

On this tour you will depart from the Port of Arrecife, capital of Lanzarote, to the northern part of the island passing through Teguise and Costa Teguise, one of the most important tourist resorts on the island. Teguise was the old capital of the island and truly exemplifies the local architecture. You will pass by Haria with its gorgeous view of the valley of 1,000 palms "Los Valles." Your next stop will be the "Mirador del Rio" designed by Cesar Manrique and from where you will enjoy a panoramic view of the "Graciosa" island. You will continue to an area of broken lava where the "Jameos del Agua" restaurant and bar cave system is located. You will see the salt water lake that is home to blind little crabs that are unique to this area of the world. On the way back to the ship you will discover some interesting aspects about the villages of Mala and Guatiza.

Please note: It is recommended that you bring sunglasses, a hat and wear comfortable shoes for this tour.

Lanzarote, Panoramic Lanzarote

ACTIVITY LEVEL: EASY

Travel by motor coach to the Fire Mountains, reminiscent of a lunar surface and the result of the continuous volcanic eruptions between 1730 and 1736. There is still an abundance of geothermal power still locked just below the earth's surface. Park wardens will pour cold water into bore holes – which is then expelled in huge steamy jets just seconds later. You will explore the park by coach and travel the volcano route where the scenery hasn't changed in the slightest since the eruptions. Continue on through the wine district of La Geria where you will have photo stops at the large salt pans of Salinas and a viewpoint of the stunning coastline of Los Hervideros along the way.

Please note: This tour is not wheelchair accessible.

Lanzarote, Wine Route

ACTIVITY LEVEL: EASY

You will depart from the Port of Arrecife, capital of Lanzarote, to the southern part of the island. Lanzarote is known as the Mithic Island, since the volcanic relief has sculpted breathtaking landscapes of almost lunar beauty. On the way to El Grifo cellar, the Peasant Monument will show up in the middle of the road. Also called Fecundity Monument, it is nailed in a landscape of matchless beauty, La Geria, declared a "Protected Area" in Lanzarote's largest wine growing region, where they have found an ingenious way of cultivating vines by digging funnel-shaped hollows, filling soil around the vines and pouring thick layers of volcanic ash on top. The ash helps retain humidity to feed the plants. El Grifo Cellar is the oldest one in the Canary Islands. The origin of the nomination El Grifo is not known, although the familiar tradition associates it with the mythological bird of the same name, half eagle half lion and today symbol of this cellar. There are 40 hectares of vineyard, mainly of malvasía grapes and some vines of moscatel and listán black. You will visit the village in La Geria, which constitutes one of the agrarian landscapes more characteristic of Lanzarote and the Archipelago. At the local cellar you will have the opportunity to taste some local wine from local grapes grown from their unique system of irrigation.

Please note: Although there are steps at both cellars, there are also ramps, making this tour wheelchair accessible.
