Marseille, Aix-En-Provence & Cezanne

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

Leaving the harbor of Marseille, you will drive to Aix-En-Provence, passing the scenery of southern France before reaching the charming old town of Aix. Upon arrival, you will visit Cézanne's last studio, where his equipment and the objects he took for models are still there. Start your walking tour on the grand Cours Mirabeau; a wide avenue built on the site of the city's medieval ramparts and shaded by leafy 200-year-old trees. Explore the old Mazarin District, home to many writers and artists such as Paul Cézanne. The district is also noted for its meticulously kept walled gardens. You will discover beautiful St. Sauveur Cathedral with its many contrasting architectural styles, a legacy of countless additions and renovations. Most notable are the remnants of a Roman-era wall that were used in a later wall, and the 15th century Gothic portal. Then, you will have some free time at leisure for shopping or have a coffee “en terrasse” before driving back to your ship.

Please note: Cezanne's workshop is not accessible by wheelchair. Aix En-Provence's streets are flat and paved.

Marseille, Flavors of Castellet

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

A drive through the ravishing Provence region is a wonderful prelude to your arrival in Le Castellet, a traditional Provençal village nestled in the wooded hills overlooking fertile vineyards. This remarkable stronghold of a city, formerly owned by the Lords of Les Baux, boasts well-preserved ramparts, acarefully restored church and a castle dating back to the 11th century. Entering the village by two fortified gates, you will enjoy an informative walking tour and see St. Sauveur Church, with its lovely windows before taking in the view inland towards Ste Baume, and Paul Ricard Circuit. You will have free time to explore the arts and crafts shops which are known for painting, pottery and exquisite metal tableware. You will head to one of Provence's famous vineyards, Domaine de Souvious to taste some delicious local red, white, and rose wines.

Please note: Castellet is a hilltop village with cobblestones and inclined streets.

Marseille, Traditions of Marseille - Concierge Collection

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

You will depart from the pier by motor coach for an exploration of Marseilles. Travel along the J.F. Kennedy Corniche following the coast with lovely views of the offshore islands and surrounding mountains. Your first stop will be Notre Dame de la Garde Basilica, located at the highest point of the city. The 170-step climb to the interior is well worth the effort. If you choose not to climb the stairs you will still be rewarded with an impressive view over Marseille.

From the Basilica descend into the city for a visit to the oldest bakery in Marseille, renowned for its “navettes,” cookies made with orange blossoms that have been baked to perfection for over three centuries. You will then visit Santons de Provence Workshop and Museum, where you will see a demonstration of how the clay figurines known as santons are made. You then have the option of walking back to your yacht with your guide or staying on and returning on your own..

Please note: This tour is not wheelchair accessible and there is a 120-step climb at Notre Dame de la Garde Basilica. Wear comfortable walking shoes.
