

SAN SEBASTIAN DE LA GOMERA, SPAIN

La Gomera - Garajonay National Park

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

From San Sebastian, the island's capital, you'll visit Gomera's most interesting sights. First you'll head north to the agricultural valley of Hermigua, famous for its banana plantations, and then on to the small, enchanting village of Agulo. Surrounded by a massive basalt wall almost 985 feet high, Agulo offers a breathtaking view of the nearby island of Tenerife. Before returning, the tour will stop at Agando, for a glimpse of the magnificent UNESCO World Heritage Site landscape of basalt formations of volcanic origin such as Roques de Agando and Orchilla.

Please note: This tour is not recommended for wheelchairs or people with mobility issues due to the amount of walking required. Wear comfortable walking shoes. All roads on La Gomera are winding and there are some ravines. Spanish law imposes an age restriction of 18 to take this tour.

PRICE$89

La Gomera - Gomera Delight

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

Board your motor coach to travel to the wonderful forest of Garajonay, recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site and your first destination after leaving the island capital, San Sebastian. Standing at over 4,000 feet above sea level, the views you'll see provide a magnificent panorama that stretches to the neighboring islands of Tenerife in the east and La Palma in the west. Making a number of stops along the way, you will have a myriad of opportunities to take photographs and enjoy the view. You will then begin your descent to the coast. Included on this tour is a visit the incredible Valle Gran Rey, home of the island's last "Guanche" Chieftain, and you will learn about the conquest of La Gomera at the beginning of the 15th century. Dominated by the surrounding curtain of mountains, you'll discover remote communities and terraced farms that cling to the valley walls all around. A short stop for refreshments in Arure will be made en route back to your ship in San Sebastian.

Please note: This tour is not recommended for wheelchairs or people with mobility issues due to the amount of walking required. All roads on La Gomera are winding and there are some ravines. Spanish law imposes an age restriction of 18 to take this tour. It is advised that you bring your camera.

PRICE$129

La Gomera - Short Island Tour

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

From San Sebastian, the island's capital, you'll visit La Gomera's most interesting sights, traveling by motor coach. First you'll head north to the agricultural valley of Hermigua, famous for its banana plantations. The Garajonay National Park covers the southern part of this municipality and one of its landmarks is the twin rocks "Roques de San Pedro." You will see the subtropical thermophile forest of Laurisilva Woods before traveling on to the small, enchanting village of Agulo. Surrounded by a massive basalt wall almost 984 feet high, Agulo offers a breathtaking view of the nearby island of Tenerife. It's a short 15-minute drive to Centro Visitantes Las Rosas where you will have free time to browse and shop for souvenirs. Your next destination will be Laguna Grande where you will have time to walk around the beautiful, dramatic scenery and visit Jeugo de Bolas, a center where you will learn the history of how the island was formed. Head to Agando, where you will see the magnificent landscape of volcanic basalt formations at Roques de Agando and Orchilla, one of La Gomera's most striking features at 4,074 feet high. Then, your motor coach will return you to your yacht.

Please note: This tour is not recommended for wheelchairs or people with mobility issues due to the amount of walking required. All roads on La Gomera are winding and there are some ravines. Spanish law imposes an age restriction of 18 to take this tour. It is advised that you bring your camera.

PRICE$89