

VALENCIA, SPAIN

Valencia and Lladro

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

Complete your visit to Valencia by exploring the City of Porcelain - the Lladro Art Center. Recently opening their door to visitors Lladro will let you explore behind the scenes of its incredible creations. From the pier you will board a motor coach for a 30-minute drive to the City of Porcelain. Upon arrival you will enjoy a multimedia presentation of the history and inspiration of its art before beginning a leisurely stroll through the production facilities. The sculptures born in the City of Porcelain are exported to more than 120 countries. From Lladro you will return to Valencia and visit the National Ceramics Museum housed in the sumptuous former palace of Valencia's nobility, the Marquis of Dos Aguas. The alabaster work on the main façade is a beautiful example of Baroque design and within this extravagant home are sweeping staircases and opulent rooms peppered with the history of ceramics. Finally, after your exploration of the museum return to the ship via motor coach.

Please note: Spanish law requires motor coach passengers to wear their seatbelts in vehicles that are so equipped. Lladro Factory is closed Friday afternoon and weekends. National Ceramics Museum is closed on Monday.

Valencia Highlights

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

You will take a drive along the Avenida del Puerto to the Square Central Market that covers more than 26,246 feet over two floors. Your walking tour begins with the Gothic-style buildings that house the Silk Exchange Exhibition Pavilion. Continue on to the Cathedral where you'll see a chalice defended as the true Holy Grail. Enjoy an external view of the 167-foot-tall Miguelete Tower connected to the cathedral. Your tour will continue with a panoramic drive to the City of Arts & Science designed by the architect Calatrava. This popular tourist attraction consists of an IMAX cinema, a planetarium, an interactive museum of science that resembles the skeleton of a whale, a landscaped walk with plant species indigenous to Valencia, an open-air oceanographic park, an opera house and performing arts center, a suspension bridge, and a covered plaza. You will have a photo-stop opportunity on your way back to the yacht.

Please note: This itinerary may change due to logistics and traffic. To be allowed access inside the Cathedral you are required to wear conservative clothes. On Sundays and holidays the Cathedral will be only toured on the outside. Central Market is closed on Sundays and holidays. Spanish law requires motor coach passengers to wear their seatbelts in vehicles that are so equipped.

Valencia, Discover the charm of Paella in Barraca

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

You will enjoy this unique experience way more than just a visit to a simple restaurant. You will travel to this typical Valencian farm house from where you will spend time in the garden to pick some vegetables for making the paella and salads. Return to the main house of La Barraca and if you want, you can join the cook and see how the real and typical Valencian Paella is prepared. While the rice is cooking enjoy a gourmet tasting of Valencian “horchata de chufa” and “peanuts of collaret” from the Valencian countryside. When the paella is ready you will head to the dining room with the other preparers and enjoy your delicious paella and salad before returning to your yacht.

Please note: Spanish law requires motor coach passengers to wear their seatbelts in vehicles that are so equipped.
