Tour Descriptions for Bali (Benoa), Indonesia

BALI TERRACES & ULUN DANU TEMPLE

Bali (Benoa), Indonesia Tour Code: DPS_03

This tour highlights what Balinese are so proud of – their beautiful rice terraces, which are mostly found in the mid-western part of the island. For the majority of Balinese, agriculture is their livelihood. Villages are mainly found centered around or near the rice fields and every farmer who owns one or more rice plots or sawahs, is compelled to join a subak, an agricultural association that controls the distribution of irrigation water to its members. As you travel through these farming communities, you'll no doubt agree that these cascading terraces are the most striking features of the landscape.

Starting off from the pier, a leisurely drive takes you into the countryside to Baha Village, which is a traditional farming community, with rice fields. The uniformity of the typical entrance gates of the family compounds combined with the traditional housing structure present a charming appearance. You'll proceed to Bedugul, which enjoys mild mountain weather due to its location at an altitude of about 1,500 meters (4,900 ft) above the sea level.

Major sites here include the Ulun Danu Temple, a major Shivaite and water temple in Bali. Water temples serve the entire region in the outflow area - downstream there are many smaller water temples that are specific to each irrigation association. Lake Bratan is known as the Lake of Holy Mountain due to the fertility of this area. As you head back to the pier, your route will take you through the towns of Batunye, Carang-sari and Luk-Luk, where there will be additional photo stops made.

Note: This tour includes a moderate amount of walking and a few steps to negotiate. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Lightweight clothing, a hat, comfortable walking shoes and an umbrella are recommended.

BALINESE ARTS & CRAFTS

Bali (Benoa), Indonesia Tour Code: DPS_07

Bali's rich art and culture have been traditionally passed down from generation to generation by means of the local community centers. This tour takes you to several communities where you can see first-hand how Bali's present day is infused with traditions of the past.

You'll travel to Tohpati village, well-known for processing exceptional Batik cloth. Here, you'll have an opportunity to observe skilled artisans at work as they use the different methods of applying the colors and printing to the fabric. Continue on to Celuk village, which is a center of gold and silver work and where over half the village is involved in the silver industry.

As with most Balinese crafts, gold and silver work is largely a hereditary trade with apprentices beginning to train at a young age and by the time they reach the age of 12, already producing fine ornaments. You'll stop at Kemenuh village, known for its wood-carving to observe the local craftsmen as they turn slabs of teak or ebony wood into intricate statues and masks.

Peliatan village is noted for its skilled painters - traditional Balinese paintings were strictly limited to narratives with mythological themes, illustrating stories from Hindu epics and literature. Under the influence of western painters who settled in Bali in the 1930s, Balinese artists began painting single scenes, using images from everyday life as their theme. Your visit includes time at one of the local galleries where you can view the beautiful works created by gifted Balinese artists.

COLORS OF BALI

Bali (Benoa), Indonesia Tour Code: DPS_06

Bali is often referred to as the Island of Gods, you'll spend your day discovering elaborate temples and observing some of Bali's enchanting dances, all the while enjoying the island's outstanding natural beauty.

Boarding your coach at the pier, you'll travel to the village of Kesiman for a special performance of the Barong dance. Your journey continues to Batuan Temple, which for over a thousand years has been the place of legends and mysterious tales. This colorful Hindu temple is considered one of the finest and oldest temples in Bali and with its stunning design and intricate ornaments, is a treat for photographers.

Continue on to Kintamani, a town perched on the rim of a vast crater overlooking Mount Batur. Still active, Mount Batur is the largest volcano in Bali and the district in which it lies is the earliest known Balinese kingdom, dating from the 10th century. Enjoy lunch here at a local restaurant that affords breathtaking views.

You'll travel to a traditional Balinese house compound for an up-close look and glimpse into Balinese life. Their homes are often viewed as a living organism. Much like a human being, it has a head - the ancestral shrine, arms - the sleeping quarters and living room and legs and feet - the kitchen and rice granaries. From here, it's on to the agro plantation where you'll have the opportunity to observe a variety of spices, coffee and cocoa being grown.

Before returning to the pier, a final stop is made at Kemenuh village. Well-known for its wood-carving, you will be able to watch the local craftsmen as they turn slabs of teak or ebony wood into intricate statues and masks. Of special interest here are the huge carved statues that depict mythical figures, such as the Garuda.

Note: This tour includes a moderate amount of walking and a few steps to negotiate. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Lightweight clothing, a hat, comfortable walking shoes and an umbrella are recommended.

ROYAL TEMPLE & TANAH LOT

Bali (Benoa), Indonesia Tour Code: DPS_05

Take advantage of this opportunity to discover Bali's intriguing world of gods and temples, along with its traditional arts and crafts. Traveling along a scenic route, you'll make your way to the magnificent Royal Temple of Mengwi. A spectacular landmark of historic architecture built in the 17th century, Pura Taman Ayun served as the family temple of the Mengwi dynasty, whose kingdom survived until the late 1800s. The temple complex includes a wide moat, exquisite wooden shrines and beautifully carved gates, making it one of the area's main attractions.

Continue on to Bali's most photographed temple, Tanah Lot. Also referred to as the Sunset Temple, the impressive black lava towers of this sacred 16th century temple are dramatically situated on a rocky outcrop that extends 656 feet offshore. Surrounded by pristine aqua waters and the white surf that crashes against the rocks, it's easy to see why this location has become a favorite with photographers.

Re-joining your coach, it's a leisurely drive to a popular batik workshop. This lovely Balinese tradition has been passed down for generations. Here, you'll have an opportunity to admire the distinctive artistry that goes into producing the famous batik cloth. You'll have some free time to shop for a souvenir.

Note: This tour includes a moderate amount of walking and some steps to negotiate. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Lightweight clothing, a hat, comfortable walking shoes and an umbrella are recommended.
