Tour Descriptions for Bangkok (Laem Chabang), Thailand

BEST OF BANGKOK IN A DAY

Bangkok (Laem Chabang), Thailand Tour Code:

LCH_06

Explore life in Bangkok, past and present, during this full-day boat ride along the Chao Phraya River and visits to the Grand Palace and Emerald Buddha Temple.

Upon arrival at River City Pier in Bangkok, you'll embark a boat for a ride along the bustling Chao Phraya River and its canals, or klongs. Along the way, you'll take in picturesque scenes and photo opportunities of typical Thai canal life, including canal grocery stores and houses built on stilts. Stop for a visit at the magnificent Wat Arun before proceeding for lunch at a local restaurant.

Drive to the Grand Palace and Emerald Buddha Temple; one of the most beautiful examples of an ancient Siamese court. The Grand Palace, former residence of the Kings of Thailand, is now reserved for royal ceremonies and state occasions. During your visit to the Palace compound, you'll admire the magnificent Royal Chapel, Wat Phra Keo, and view the Emerald Buddha, Thailand's most sacred Buddha image.

Note: As tour visits a religious site, conservative dress is required for men and women. Guests must wear modest clothing that covers shoulders and knees; revealing outfits are not appropriate. Shoes must be removed when visiting temples. Tour involves a moderate amount of walking and pontoons to negotiate the exit and entrance of the boat; not recommended for guests with limited mobility or guests who utilize a wheelchair. Please expect differences in tour duration due to traffic conditions. Photo and video are permitted outside the building of the Grand Palace only. The drive to Bangkok is approximately 2 1/2 hours each way.

SCENES OF OLD BANGKOK

Bangkok (Laem Chabang), Thailand Tour Code:

LCH_07

Experience the ancient beauty of Old Bangkok during this splendid full-day orientation tour of the city. Your tour of Old Bangkok takes you to Wat Suthat, easily identified by the famous giant swing in front of the temple. Admire a renowned collection of old murals from the reign of King Rama III, during the years 1824 to 1851, housed inside the main building, along with a splendid array of gilded Buddha images.

At a local hotel enjoy a buffet lunch and then continue on for a sightseeing drive past the Democracy Monument, the Grand Palace and Emerald Buddha Temple, the National Museum, the Sacred City Pillar, Wat Pho Reclining Buddha Temple, the Royal Pier, Wat Arun and various government offices, with a photo stop at the City Pavilion.

Note: As tour visits a religious site, conservative dress is required for men and women. Guests must wear modest clothing that covers shoulders and knees; revealing outfits are not appropriate. Shoes must be removed when visiting temples. Please expect differences in tour duration due to traffic conditions. The drive to Bangkok is approximately 2 1/2 hours each way.

THE ANCIENT CITY

Bangkok (Laem Chabang), Thailand Tour Code:
LCH_11

Uncover Thai history with a visit to the Ancient City where you'll find fascinating reproductions displaying authentic buildings, communities and villages throughout the grounds of the immense park. Built on a 200-acre site, the Ancient City is like an open book of Thai history that allows visitors to gain a view of the real Thailand. You'll see the numerous reproductions of palace halls, temples, stupas, stone sanctuaries and traditional houses. You can also see several reconstructed historical buildings, authenticated communities with their daily chores and sample villages from all regions of the country. Due to the enormous size of this fascinating attraction, you'll view most of the city from the local tram, although some stops will be made along the way for interior or close-up looks at some of the sites such as the Old Market Town, Khao Phra Vihan, Sanphet Prasart Palace, and the Floating Market.

Note: The drive to the Ancient City is just over 2 hours each way.

THE WOOD PAVILION - SANCTUARY OF TRUTH

Bangkok (Laem Chabang), Thailand Tour Code:
LCH_04

Experience the mystic ancient beauty, tradition and art of Thailand during this visit to the Wooden Pavilion. Head to North Pattaya to visit this pavilion also known as "The Sanctuary of Truth". It is a mystical building constructed according to ancient Thai specifications and the largest wood-carved structure in Thailand.

Designed as a pagoda-shaped pavilion, the building is over 340 feet tall. It is a fusion of religion, culture and art. Originally crafted entirely from Thailand's native teak, parts of the Wooden Pavilion have been replaced by the more durable redwood to withstand the ravages of the salt air. Every square inch of the building is covered with intricate and detailed wooden sculptures depicting the Ancient Vision of Earth, Ancient Knowledge and Eastern Philosophy. Once inside, you'll have an opportunity to view the cavernous inner chapel, which reveals scenes from Chinese, Hindu and Buddhist traditions.

Note: Please expect differences in tour duration due to traffic conditions.
