TGR03 - CAP SPARTEL & HERCULES CAVES

SOMETHING SPECIAL

Spend a few hours off the ship discovering one of the best vantage points near Tangier and then one of the city's most vibrant spots on a half-day tour that begins with a relaxing coach trip up to Cap Spartel, your first stop. Situated a little to the west of Tangier at a height of about 300 m (1.000 ft.), the promontory of Cap Spartel commands outstanding views of the Strait of Gibraltar, the link between the Atlantic Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea. You will have some time to take photos before you head for Hercules Caves for a visit. Legends say that Hercules rested in these caves after separating Gibraltar from Africa. After the visit, you will proceed to a hotel for light refreshments. One of Tangier's time-honoured gems of which there are many in a city that dates back to the 5th century B.C. is the Kasbah, your next stop. You will then go for a guided walk through bustling lanes, narrow alleyways and the local fruit and vegetable market. Enjoy a guided visit of the Berber pharmacy to get familiarized with local products used in Moroccan everyday life and then spend some time to shop around the "Petit Socco" (meaning "Little Square"), a central square in Tangier's Medina. The short coach drive back to the ship ends your tour. Please note: this tour is not suitable for guests using a wheelchair.

CULTURE AND HISTORY
